

TRACK (FOCUS AREA)	COURSE	DESCRIPTION	PRESENTER
Explore Rotary	Connect District Programs to International Possibilities !	Audience: general. Connect District programs to International possibilities around the globe. Discover Group Study Exchange (GSE) & Rotary Friendship Exchange (RFE) opportunities for travel & hosting! Programs share Culture, Service, Vocations & more...be inspired!	Rae LaMarche and Camille Ronzio
Explore Rotary	Rotary 101: The Basics	Audience: new Rotarians. Learn about the worldwide structure of Rotary, its charitable Foundation, its programs, and how we can do good in the world, together.	Nelson Maler
Explore Rotary	Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion (DEI)	Audience: Interact, Rotaract, Rotarians. The values of diversity, equity, and inclusion are vital to the next generation of young adults. This is your invitation to learn and explore the concepts of DEI and how it affects the future of Rotary.	Colbey Carpenter & Graciela Garcia
Explore Rotary	Rotary Membership Benefits	Audience: general. Being a Rotarian doesn't have to be about service all the time; there are great personal benefits to joining Rotary! Come learn more about Rotary Fellowships, Global Rewards, and a new program in D5110- -Business to Business --to promote your business and do business with other Rotarians.	Jean Hamilton
Foundation	Club Rotary Foundation Chairs & Our Rotary Foundation (TRF)	Audience: TRF chairs. The Foundation's programs turn our money into gifts through our service. Learn how to find/use club TRF reports, handle member recognition, and promote giving to inspire giving in your club's members.	Gary Newland

Continued next page-

Foundation	How to write, submit, & report on a district grant using DACdb	Audience: grant writers, service project chairs, grants chair. Real time demonstration in DACdb. Learn how to enter a grant project in grants module and complete final report. Class size is limited register early!	Eric Hodnett
Foundation	Grant Management Training Parts 1 and 2	Audience: general, club grant writers, project chairs, World Community Service chairs. Every year, clubs must have 2 people attend a grant training in order to participate in a global grant. Learn terms and conditions of grants, how to be good stewards of grant money, file reports and recordkeeping requirements.	Tim Mobley
Foundation	Beyond Galas: New Fundraising Ideas	Audience: fundraising chairs, TRF chairs, service project chairs. Work smarter not harder raising money for club projects --and let's get creative with fundraisers! Explore how to think beyond traditional auctions each year and connect with your donors effectively in support your projects.	Beth Sheehan
Foundation	Reflections from a Peace Fellow	Audience: general. Emmanuel started and now operates a farm school for orphaned and marginalized children. Come hear this Rotary Peace Fellow's story and learn more about the Rotary Peace Centers and how the program changes lives for all concerned!	Emmanuel Baya
Be A Vibrant Club	Rotary Core Values	Audience: general. Re-energize your understanding of Rotary's core values and how they represent the guiding principles of the organization's culture. Values are an increasingly important component in action planning because they drive the intent and direction of the club leadership and the club.	Jim Lussier

Be A Vibrant Club	Conflict Resolution	Audience: general, directors, club officers. Learn how to identify potential conflict and steps to remedy before it hurts someone in your club.	Claudette McWilliams
Be A Vibrant Club	Crisis & Risk Management	Audience: Directors and club officers, general. Respond to, manage & recover from an unforeseen event. Ranging from risk involved with students to public events, managing a crisis needs a plan to identify, assess and mitigate any activity or event that could cause harm to your club and Rotary's image.	Claudette McWilliams
Be A Vibrant Club	The 3 Essential Elements: Brand, Membership, and Foundation	Audience: membership, public image, and foundation chairs, club officers, general. Membership, Brand, and Foundation goals don't need to stand alone. Learn how to succeed by integrating each of the essential elements into everything you do. Receive a template to help you automatically consider each element in all stages of a project, service, or event you are planning.	LeAnn Mobley
Leadership for Assistant Governors	Assistant Governor (AG) Roundtable	Audience: Asst. Governors. Meet in a roundtable format with EAG David	David Figurate
Leadership for Presidents Elect	Presidents Elect Training, continued	Audience: PEs Continue conversation with DGE Rick on resources, club vision, board development for your year.	DGE Rick et al
Leadership	Primal Leadership	Audience: General It's more important than ever for leaders to be self-aware and composed, focused and compelling, motivating and collaborative...in short, resonant. Understand why emotionally intelligent leaders get results.	Tim Mobley
Continued on next page

Leadership for President-Elect Nominees	PE- Nominees (club presidents in 2020-2021)	Audience: President-Elect Nominees. Meet and Greet with Cindi O'Neil (district governor your year). The Governor and the district serve to support your club. Hear Cindi's vision on how she plans on working with you in support of your club's goals.	Cindi O'Neil
Leadership for Secretaries	Club Secretaries Parts 1 and 2	Audience: Club Secretaries. Computer workshop to learn how district database (DACdb) supports your role. Class size is limited register early!
Leadership for Treasurers	Club Treasurers Parts 1 and 2	Audience: Club Treasurers Learn about invoices, dues, Quickbooks, operating funds, grant funds, and Foundation funds management.	Robert Ball and Jim Polk
Membership	Member Engagement and Retention	Audience: membership chairs, club board of directors, general. Understand WHY people join, & why people stay in Rotary. Explores importance of branding your club; receive practical ideas to improve club culture. Bring your challenges to discuss.	Beth Sheehan
Membership	Preparing to Grow Your Club	Audience: membership chairs, club board of directors, general. Just saying you want to grow your club and doing it in a sustainable, manageable way, are two different things. Club structures for memberships of less than 30 look different than clubs of 50+. Get great tips from the expert.	Beth Sheehan
Membership	Exploring Flexibility in Rotary Membership and Club meetings	Audience: Membership Chairs, Club Leaders, general membership. As Rotary evolves to attract and retain members, clubs are now provided with a menu of flexible options for meetings and attendance requirements. This session explores	Gerry Kosanovic new ways of enhancing the Rotary membership experience in your club to strengthen service opportunities.

Public Image	Brand Image: The Rotary Experience	Audience: PR/PI chairs, general. In today's world, a compelling brand is one of the keys to success for organizations. Rotary has competition when it comes to attracting new members, and by creating more awareness of the Rotary Brand we can attract new members to expand our impact and share our relevance. Learn about brand and building a strong image for your club. Strong brands have a clear image and create a strong emotional connection.	Judy Corwin
Public Image	Brand Identity: Tools and Guidelines	Audience: PR/PI chair, general. Our identity guidelines explain how to use Rotary's updated logos, type fonts, color, voice, and visual styles in all your club and district communications. By following these guidelines, you're helping to create a clear and consistent visual identity that will strengthen Rotary's image.	Judy Corwin
Public Image	Facebook Basics	Audience: Public relations/Public image chair, officers, general. Get your club's story out there! Learn how to use Facebook to promote your club's brand in your community and beyond.	Sadie Ward
Youth Services	Youth Protection	Audience: youth chairs, general. Protecting youth in Rotary programs needs to be one of our top priorities. Learn best practices in youth safety that reduce risk of injury to our youth and financial risk for the district and Rotary at large. Review of volunteer vetting process that will standardize and streamline training and background checks for all volunteers.	Dan Converse

Continued next page

Youth Services	Rotary Youth Leadership Award (RYLA) -Oh Yeah!	Audience: youth chairs, general. It's the 30 th anniversary of RYLA in D5110. Learn about resources to recruit, select, and register campers; ask questions of the most experienced club coordinator--How does the RYLA camp experience transform lives? What's new for 2019-20? Come find out!	Ariann Lyons & Colbey Carpenter
Youth Services	Interact: New Generations Taking the Lead	Audience: youth chairs, general. Learn about exciting student-led fundraising and service activities and plans for Interact district conference and Peace Literacy Symposium.	Diane Pomeroy & Gwyneth Fisk
Youth Services	Rotaract: Young Leaders in Action	Audience: Rotaractors and club coordinators. Meet vibrant leaders of Rotaract in D5110; they are the future of Rotary. They will showcase current "hot topics" and opportunities in Rotaract. Ask questions and be inspired!	Johnny Archer
Youth Services	Rotaract: Open Meeting with your District Leaders	Audience: Rotaractors and Rotarians. Learn about District priorities, activities, and opportunities with a focus on District Conference and the unique Peace Literacy Symposium.	Mary Hoskins & Johnny Archer
Youth Services	Rotary Youth Exchange: Its basics	Audience: general. Basic level: Learn about the program, how to get involved in youth exchange.	Knut Torvik
Youth Services	Rotary Youth Exchange: Advanced	Audience: Intermediate level, for club officers Focus is on the policies and procedures necessary at club level.	Knut Torvik